MEMORANDUM FOR AFBCMR

FROM: HQ AFPC/DPPPO - 550 C Street West Suite 8

SUBJECT: Application for Correction of Military Record [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

Requested Action. Applicant requests promotion to captain with subsequent date of rank.

Basis for Request. Applicant contends he was on the Army's promotion list to captain with a date of rank to first lieutenant of 30 Jun 96.

Discussion.

a. Application is timely, as applicant entered active duty in the Air Force on 6 Aug 97. Applicant was transferred to the Air Force on 6 Aug 97 as a first lieutenant in the Nurse Corps with a date of rank of 30 Jun 96.

b. Applicant was recommended for promotion to captain from the FY97 Captain, Army Nurse Corps, Promotion Board, convened on 8 Apr 97, per TAPC-MSP-O ([REDACTED]) memorandum, 30 Jun 97, FY97 Promotion Lists for Captain, Medical Service Corps (MS), Army Medical Specialist Corps (SP) and Army Nurse Corps (AN) Competitive Categories.

c. Upon his accession into the active duty Air Force, his selection for promotion was not transferred or accepted. DoD Directive 1300.4, 2 Apr 84, E10, states, "If a commissioned officer transferred between two of the Military Services is on a promotion list to the next higher grade under section of reference (b) (USC, Title 10), the Secretary of the Military Department concerned may integrate the officer into the promotion list of the gaining Military Service based on the officer's date of rank in his or her current grade in the losing Military Service." Procedures to allow for the transfer of an officer's promotion selection are not currently covered in existing Air Force Instructions.

d. Applicant has provided sufficient evidence of his selection for promotion to captain.

Recommendation. Approval. AFBCMR, under the authority of the Secretary of the Air Force, direct transfer of the applicant's promotion to the grade of captain, evidenced by TAPC-MSP-O (██████████) memorandum dated 30 Jun 97, to the Air Force. AFBCMR direct the applicant's promotion effective date to captain of 30 Jun 98.

Summary. DoD Directive 1300.4 governs transfer of promotion selection in interservice transfer actions. Air Force Instructions are being amended to reflect this guidance. Applicant has provided sufficient evidence of his selection for promotion. Eligibility to assume the grade of captain must be certified by his commander until the applicant's projected, effective date of rank. To date, there is no contrary evidence to indicate or suggest propriety precluding promotion.
