AIR FORCE DISCHARGE REVIEW BOARD DECISIONAL RATIONALE

CASE NUMBER

FD-2005-00069

GENERAL: The applicant appeals for upgrade of discharge to honorable.

The applicant was scheduled to appear and testify before the Discharge Review Board (DRB), via Video-Teleconference between St. Augustine, FL, and Andrews AFB, MD on 25 Jan 2006, but failed to appear or notify the DRB.

The attached brief contains available pertinent data on the applicant and the factors leading to the discharge.

FINDINGS: Upgrade of discharge is denied.

The Board finds that neither the evidence of record nor that provided by the applicant substantiates an inequity or impropriety that would justify a change of discharge.

ISSUE: Applicant received a general discharge for a Pattern of Misconduct – Conduct Prejudicial to Good Order and Discipline.

Applicant contends discharge was unjust and that he suffered from emotional issues and was unfairly discharged, almost forced out of the Air Force. The records indicated the applicant received an Article 15, a vacation action, three Letters of Reprimand, and two Records of Individual Counseling for misconduct to include repeated tardiness in reporting for duty, repeated disrespect to superiors and co-workers, repeated failure to meet dress and personal appearance standards, lying, threatening and disorderly conduct, provoking confrontations with co-workers and dorm mates, and sleeping on duty. The DRB opined that through these administrative actions, the applicant had ample opportunities to change his negative behavior. The Board concluded the misconduct was a significant departure from conduct expected of all military members. Since no documentation was produced to substantiate applicant's claim of suffering from emotional issues, this issue was deemed to be without merit. The applicant also cited his desire to receive the G.I. Bill benefits as justification for upgrade. The Board was sympathetic to the impact the loss of these benefits was having on the applicant, but this is not a matter of inequity or impropriety which would warrant an upgrade. The characterization of the discharge received by the applicant was found to be appropriate.

CONCLUSIONS: The Discharge Review Board concludes that the discharge was consistent with the procedural and substantive requirements of the discharge regulation and was within the discretion of the discharge authority and that the applicant was provided full administrative due process.

In view of the foregoing findings the Board further concludes that there exists no legal or equitable basis for upgrade of discharge, thus the applicant's discharge should not be changed.

Again, I am proud and blessed to be called a USAF veteran, Yet I know being young and being new to military life early on in my Airforce career I made mistakes I regret mostly due to my youth and immatur maturity. I have forgiven those who have done wrong to me and I hope that I may be forgiven for my mistakes. These past few months I realized the Mentaly, emotionally, and financialy that I miss the airforce, it is a struggle day in and day out to seek employment. And mostly of all I realize one important thing that has been preached and beat and drilled into my physicaly and mentaly is that education is the most powerful weapon in the world.
