EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

The applicant was discharged for Fraudulent Entry Into Military Service in 2012 due to physical ailments that limited the ability to perform the basic shipboard tasks. The applicant spoke of breathing and vision problems after just a few weeks aboard a vessel in the first assignment after Recruit Training. One month later, the command had determined that the applicant had not fully disclosed the limiting conditions at either Military Entrance Processing or Training Center Cape May. The command notified the applicant of the intent to discharge for Fraudulent Enlistment. The applicant did not object to the discharge, but made a statement to state that no attempt to lie or deceive the Coast Guard (on a vertigo or asthma problem) was made at any time.

Based on the inconsistencies in the separation package and the applicant's statements to date, the Board recommends the following changes: Separation code to JND. Narrative Reason: Separation for Miscellaneous/General Reasons. Reentry code of RE-3G. The Board also notes that an Honorable Discharge was issued despite serving less than 180 days in service. An 'Uncharacterized' discharge should have been issued. This error was in the applicant's favor.

An RE3 reentry code is not an affirmative recommendation for reenlistment, rather it represents that the applicant is not recommended for reenlistment due to a disqualifying factor. The RE3 code may be waived based upon the policies and needs of the gaining Service.

Propriety: Discharge was proper.

Equity: Discharge was equitable.

Final Adjudication by Assistant Commandant For Human Resources: Partial relief is granted as follows:
