EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

The applicant was discharged for Entry Level Separation after 25 days of service in 2006. The applicant was issued with an entry level separation due to the inability to adapt during the first 180 days of service.

The applicant claims having no mental deficiency that should prevent reentry into the military. However, the Board notes that the reentry code of RE-3L is the same as most former member's that are unable to complete recruit training. The 3L does not indicate any mental or behavioral issue that must be overcome. The 3L is defined as 'Entry Level Separation, must have waiver to reenlist'.

The Board finds no issues with propriety or equity in this case.

An uncharacterized character of service is not derogatory in nature and is the prescribed character for individuals who were separated while at initial accession training and there was no associated conduct to warrant a less desirable character of service.

An RE3 reentry code is not an affirmative recommendation for reenlistment, rather it represents that the applicant is not recommended for reenlistment due to a disqualifying factor. The RE3 code may be waived based upon the policies and needs of the gaining Service.

Propriety: Discharge was proper.

Equity: Discharge was equitable.

Final Adjudication by Assistant Commandant For Human Resources: Discharge will stand as issued.
