

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

SMW
Docket No: 7459-07
13 May 2008

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 7 May 2008. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

On 27 June 1979, you enlisted in the Navy at age 20 and served without incident for four years. On 23 January 1986, you had nonjudicial punishment for wrongful appropriation. You were also counseled regarding deficiencies in your performance and conduct and warned that further infractions could result in disciplinary action or an other than honorable (OTH) discharge. On 26 March 1986, you had NJP for altering a base decal and safety card. On 21 April 1986, you were counseled regarding deficiencies in your performance and conduct and again warned that further infractions could result in disciplinary action or an OTH discharge. On 23 June 1986, you had NJP for failure to go to your appointed place of duty and suspended punishment from the previous NJP was vacated.

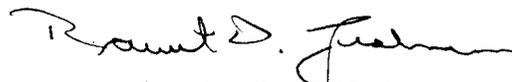

On 7 July 1986, your commanding officer initiated administrative separation by reason of misconduct due to a pattern of misconduct. In connection with this processing, you acknowledged that separation could result in an OTH discharge and elected to have your case heard by an administrative discharge board (ADB). On 7 October 1986, an ADB found that you were guilty of misconduct due to a pattern of misconduct and recommended a general discharge. On 15 September 1986, the separation authority approved the separation recommendation and directed a general discharge by reason of misconduct due to a pattern of misconduct. On 24 November 1986, you were so discharged and assigned an RE-4 reenlistment code.

Regulations direct assignment of an RE-4 reenlistment code to members who are discharged by reason of misconduct. Since you have been treated no differently than others in your situation, the Board could not find an error or injustice in the assignment of the RE-4 reenlistment code. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

ROBERT D. ZSALMAN
Acting Executive Director
