

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

TJR
Docket No: 8124-07
8 October 2008

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of Title 10, United States Code, Section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 7 October 2008. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You enlisted in the Marine Corps on 27 August 1979 at age 18 and served without disciplinary incident until 3 April 1980, when you received nonjudicial punishment (NJP) for absence from your appointed place of duty. On 28 January 1982 and again on 25 May 1983 you received NJP for failure to go to your appointed place of duty and disobedience.

On 26 August 1983 you were released from active duty under honorable conditions. On 20 June 1985, upon completion of your obligated service, you were issued a general discharge certificate.

Character of service is based, in part, on conduct and proficiency averages which are computed from marks assigned during periodic evaluations. Your conduct average was 3.9. An average of 4.0 in conduct was required at the time of your release from active duty for a fully honorable characterization of service.

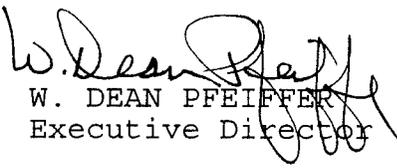

The Board, in its review of your entire record and application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your youth and request to upgrade the characterization of your service. It also considered your assertion that you did not receive your discharge documents. Nevertheless, the Board concluded these factors were not sufficient to warrant recharacterization of your release from active duty or discharge because of your repetitive misconduct which resulted in three NJPs and since your marks were insufficiently high to warrant a fully honorable characterization of service. Accordingly, your application has been denied.

You may obtain a copy of your discharge certificates and naval record by submitting the enclosed Request Pertaining to Military Records, SF 180, to National Personnel Records Center (Military Personnel Records), 9700 Page Boulevard, St. Louis MO 63132.

The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
