

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

TRG
Docket No: 8195-07
6 May 2008

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 22 April 2008. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

On 6 January 1973 you enlisted in the Navy Reserve for six years. Subsequently, you were issued active duty for training (ACDUTRA) orders to attend your initial training. On 23 January 1973 you reported for recruit training and follow-up training. You were released from active duty on 22 July 1973. At that time, you were issued a DD Form 214 showing six months of active duty for training. Subsequently, you performed 14 days of ACDUTRA. You were honorably discharged on 16 December 1974 for failure to attend drills.

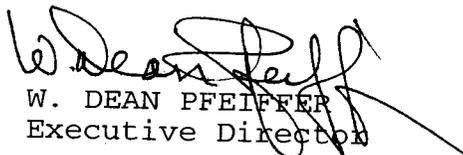

A DD Form 214 is only issued to document extended periods of active duty. Periods as a drilling reservist and two week ACDUTRA periods do not result in the issuance of a DD Form 214.

In view of the foregoing, it is clear that your DD Form 214 is correct and you have been treated no differently than others in your situation. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
