This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 20 August 2008. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

On 26 September 1983, you enlisted in the Navy at age 21. During the period 4 October 1984 to 9 April 1986, you had three nonjudicial punishments (NJP's). Your offenses included use of marijuana, assault, and failure to obey a lawful order. On 3 August 1987, you were counseled regarding deficiencies in your performance and conduct, and warned that further infractions could result in an other than honorable (OTH) discharge. On 7 October 1987, you had NJP for failure to go to your appointed place of duty and sodomy.

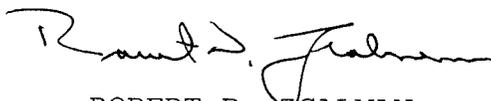

On 16 October 1987, your commanding officer initiated administrative separation by reason of misconduct due to a pattern of misconduct, commission of a serious offense, and drug abuse. In connection with this processing, you acknowledged that separation could result in an OTH discharge and waived the right to have your case heard by an administrative discharge board (ADB). On 29 October 1987, you had NJP for failure to go to your appointed place of duty. On 13 January 1988, the separation authority approved the discharge recommendation and directed an OTH discharge by reason of misconduct due to a pattern of misconduct. On 22 January 1988, you were so discharged.

The Board, in its review of your entire record and application, carefully weighed all potential mitigation, such as your youth. The Board also considered your explanation of events. Nevertheless, the Board concluded that these factors and explanation were not sufficient to warrant recharacterization of your discharge due to your misconduct that continued even after you were warned that further infractions could result in an OTH discharge. The Board also noted that you waived the right to have your case heard by an ADB, your best opportunity for retention or a more favorable characterization of service. Therefore, the Board concluded that the discharge was proper as issued and no change is warranted. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

ROBERT D. ZSALMAN
Acting Executive Director
