

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

SJN
Docket No: 00057-08
11 December 2008

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of Title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 9 December 2008. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

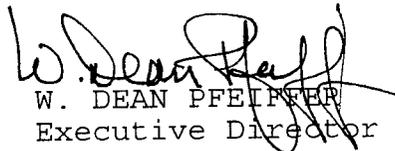

You enlisted in the Navy and began a period of active duty on 4 August 1978 at age 21. During the period from 4 October 1979 to 26 March 1981, you received seven nonjudicial punishments (NJP's) for six periods of unauthorized absence (UA), one of which was for seven days, 13 instances of failure to go to your appointed place of duty, two instances of disobedience, and missing movement.

On 30 March 1981, you were notified of pending administrative separation action by reason of misconduct due to frequent involvement of a discreditable nature with military authorities. After being advised of your procedural rights, you waived the right to an administrative discharge board (ADB) and submitted a statement on your behalf. On 31 March 1981, your commanding officer forwarded your case recommending separation. On 9 April 1981, the discharge authority directed that you be discharged under other than honorable conditions by reason of misconduct. You were so discharged on 13 April 1981.

The Board, in its review of your application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your youth, overall record of service, the character letters accompanying your application, and post service accomplishments. Nevertheless, the Board found that these factors were not sufficient to warrant any change in your discharge because of the seven NJP's, one of which was for the serious offense of missing movement. The Board also noted that you waived an ADB, your best chance for retention or a better characterization of service. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
