

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

SJN
Docket No: 09625-08
14 August 2009

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of Title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 11 August 2009. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You enlisted in the Marine Corps and began a period of active duty on 13 December 1972 at age 19. During the period from 18 June 1973 to 27 January 1975, you received six nonjudicial punishments (NJP's) for possession of marijuana, four periods of unauthorized absence (UA) totaling nine days, and two instances of absence from your appointed place of duty. On 11 August 1975, you were convicted by civil authorities of two counts of armed robbery. You were sentenced to eight to 10 years in jail.

On 1 December 1975, you were processed for an administrative discharge by reason of misconduct due to civil conviction. You were notified of this pending administrative separation action and elected to consult counsel and have your case heard by an administrative discharge board (ADB).

On 19 May 1976, an ADB found that you had committed misconduct due to civil conviction, and recommended an undesirable discharge. Subsequently, your commanding officer forwarded your case to the discharge authority concurring with the findings and recommendations of the ADB. On 17 June 1976, the discharge authority directed that you be separated with an undesirable discharge by reason of civil conviction. You were so discharged on 15 July 1976.

The Board, in its review of your application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your youth and overall record of service. Nevertheless, the Board found that these factors were not sufficient to warrant any change in your discharge given your record of six NJP's, conviction by civil authorities for serious offenses, and subsequent incarceration. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
