

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

CRS
Docket No: 11565-08
11 January 2010

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 6 January 2010. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

The Board found that you reenlisted in the Navy on 29 March 2004. On 17 April 2005 you were convicted by civil authorities of improper exhibition of a firearm. The court sentenced you to a fine of $190.

On 7 July 2005 your commanding officer recommended that you be separated from the Navy with a general discharge by reason of misconduct due to civil conviction. When informed of this recommendation, you waived the right to consult with counsel and to present your case to an administrative discharge board. On 25 July 2005 you were separated with a general discharge by reason of misconduct.

In its review of your application the Board carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your youth and overall service record, and the contention that you were not convicted by civil authorities. The Board concluded that those factors were insufficient to warrant recharacterization of your discharge or changing its basis. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
