

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

BJG

Docket No: 9240-09

27 May 2010

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 26 May 2010. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. The Board found that you entered active duty in the Navy on 18 September 1973. You received nonjudicial punishment on nine occasions for absence from your appointed place of duty (two specifications), violating a lawful order, assault, possession and use of marijuana, disobeying a lawful order (two specifications), sleeping on watch, larceny, unauthorized absence for 26 days, disrespect (two specifications), and failure to report an offense. You were notified of pending administrative discharge processing with an other than honorable (OTH) discharge due to misconduct.

You requested an administrative discharge board, which unanimously found that you committed misconduct and recommended that you receive an OTH discharge. On 6 May 1988, you received an OTH discharge for misconduct, and were assigned an RE-4 reenlistment code.

In its review of your application, the Board carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your youth. However, the Board concluded that your OTH discharge should not be changed due to your numerous acts of misconduct. In view of the above, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
