Dear [REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10, United States Code, Section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 8 July 2010. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You enlisted in the Marine Corps on 11 October 1956, at age 17. On 27 January 1958, you received nonjudicial punishment (NJP) for a being in an unauthorized absence (UA) status. On 14 February 1958, you received NJP for a second period of UA. On 6 March 1958, you received NJP for failing to go to your appointed place of duty. On 23 June 1958, you were convicted by the Beaufort, South Carolina civilian criminal court for auto theft. You were sentenced to confinement in the state penitentiary for three years.

On 6 August 1958, the commanding officer recommended that you receive an other than honorable (OTH) discharge by reason of misconduct. Subsequently, your case was forwarded, and the discharge authority approved the recommendation for an OTH discharge. You were so discharged on 20 August 1958.

The Board, in its review of your entire record and application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your youth and immaturity. Nevertheless, the Board concluded these factors were not sufficient to warrant recharacterization of your discharge because of your misconduct that resulted in three NJP's, a civilian criminal conviction and confinement. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
