

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

BJG
Docket No: 767-10
13 October 2010

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 5 October 2010. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. The Board found that you served on active duty in the Navy from 12 December 1986 until 5 June 1995, when you were honorably discharged. On 29 January 1997, you requested to be affiliated with the Navy Ready Reserve. On 30 April 2000, you were placed on the Inactive Status List (ISL) as per your request due to your inability to drill. On 10 December 2003, you were notified that since you had been on the ISL for at least a year, you were being screened for possible involuntary discharge. It appears that you failed to respond to this correspondence and were discharged from the Navy Reserve on 31 May 2004.

In its review of your application, the Board carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your desire to serve in the armed forces. However, the Board concluded that your Navy Reserve affiliation status should not be changed due to your lack of activity and being properly placed on the ISL. In view of the above, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
