

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

CRS
Docket No: 1228-10
7 April 2010

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 31 March 2010. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

The Board found that you reenlisted in the Navy on 30 April 1982. On 10 July 1985 a special court-martial convened and found you guilty of an assault with a fire axe and communicating a threat to kill. The court sentenced you to confinement at hard labor for 120 days, forfeiture of $200.00 per month for two months, reduction in rank, and a bad conduct discharge. You were so discharged on 6 September 1988.

In its review of your application the Board carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your youth, overall service, and the contention that your rights were denied by the special court-martial. The Board concluded that those factors were insufficient to warrant recharacterization of your service, given the serious nature of the misconduct which resulted in your discharge. In addition, the Board noted that it has no authority to disturb the findings or sentence of a court-martial based on claims of legal error. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
