

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

CRS
Docket No: 1966-10
28 May 2010

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record dated 22 February 2010.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered a portion of your application on 19 May 2010. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

The Board found that you reenlisted in the Navy on 17 February 1987. On 14 August 1989 a psychologist diagnosed you as having an adjustment disorder and a personality disorder with antisocial features. On 29 August 1990 you were diagnosed with a severe personality disorder. On 4 October 1990 your commanding officer recommended that you be separated from the Navy with an honorable discharge by reason of "Other Physical/Mental Conditions- Personality Disorder". After review by the discharge authority, the recommendation for separation was approved and on 12 October 1990 you were separated with an honorable discharge.

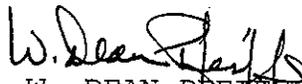

In its review of your application the Board carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your youth, overall service, and the contention that your discharge was unjust. The Board concluded that those factors were insufficient to demonstrate that the reason and authority for your discharge are erroneous or unjust. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

The Board did not consider your request for correction of your reentry code as that request was previously denied by the Board and you did not submit any new material evidence concerning that request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
