

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

REC
Docket No: 03857-10
28 January 2011

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 26 January 2011. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

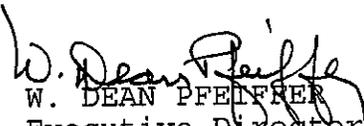

You enlisted in the Marine Corps and began a period of active duty on 6 May 1974, at age 18. On 22 May 1974, you received nonjudicial punishment (NJP) for disobeying a lawful order, and being disrespectful. On 16 September 1974, you received NJP for being in an unauthorized absence (UA) status for five days. On 8 January 1975, you received NJP for being UA for 66 days. On 30 April 1975, you received NJP for being UA for eight days. On 19 May 1975, you commenced a period of UA for eight days. On 30 May 1975, you began a period of UA for 335 days. On 30 April 1976, you began a 27 day period of UA. Your chain of command took no disciplinary action. On 1 May 1976, you submitted a written request for an administrative discharge for the good of service in order to avoid trial by court-martial for the latter three periods of UA totaling 370 days. Prior to submitting this request for discharge, you conferred with a qualified military lawyer, and were advised of your rights and warned of the probable adverse consequences of accepting such a discharge. Your request for discharge was granted and on 7 June 1976, you received an other than honorable discharge in lieu of trial by court-martial. As a result of that action, you were spared the stigma of a court-martial conviction and the potential penalties of a punitive discharge and confinement at hard labor.

The Board, in its review of your application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your youth, and overall record of service. Nevertheless, the Board concluded these factors were not sufficient to warrant recharacterization of your discharge because of your four NJPs, periods of UA totaling over one year, and request for discharge in lieu of trial by court-martial. The Board believed that considerable clemency was extended to you when your request for discharge was approved. The Board also concluded that you received the benefit of your bargain with the Marine Corps when your request for discharge was granted and should not be permitted to change it now. Further, you are advised that there is no provision in the law or Navy regulations that allows for recharacterization of your discharge automatically due solely to the passage of time. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFELFFER
Executive Director
