

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

REC
Docket No: 04418-10
6 May 2010

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 4 May 2010. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You enlisted in the Marine Corps and began a period of active duty on 3 February 1999, at age 18. On 1 June 1999, you attempted to commit suicide by taking 24 Tylenol capsules which resulted in having your stomach pumped. On 7 June 1999, a mental health evaluation was conducted and found you to have no personality disorders and determined that you were fully responsible for your behavior. On 17 June 1999, your commanding officer recommended that you be separated by reason of entry level performance and conduct due to failure to adapt. On 19 July 1999, you were discharged from active duty with an entry level separation and were assigned an RE-4 reenlistment code based on your performance and conduct.

The Board, in its review of your application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your overall record of service, and youth. Nevertheless, the Board concluded these factors were not sufficient to warrant a change in the reenlistment code, which was based on your substandard behavior. In this regard, an RE-4 reenlistment code is required when an individual is discharged with an entry level separation and less than 180 days of service. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
