

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

TAL
Docket No: 7377-10
1 April 2011

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 30 March 2011. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You enlisted in the Marine Corps and began a period of active duty on 28 December 1977 at age 19. You received nonjudicial punishment (NJP) on five occasions for wrongful appropriation of a bottle of rum, three instances of failure to go to your appointed place of duty, two instances of unauthorized absence from your unit totaling one day, and failure to obey a general order by wrongful possession of 13.6 grams of marijuana. On 29 November 1978, you were convicted by special court-martial (SPCM) of seven instances of insubordinate conduct toward a superior noncommissioned officer and two instances of making a threat. The sentence imposed was confinement for 64 days, a forfeiture of pay and a bad conduct discharge (BCD). On 27 April 1981, you received the BCD after appellate review was complete.

The Board, in its review of your application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your youth and overall record of service. Nevertheless, the Board found that these factors were not sufficient to warrant recharacterization of your discharge given the seriousness of your misconduct that resulted in five NJPs and a SPCM. Concerning your alleged mental problems, there is no indication in the record that such problems, if they existed at the time of your service, were so serious as to excuse you of responsibility for your actions or were sufficiently mitigating to warrant recharacterization. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
