

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

BJG
Docket No: 7918-10
6 April 2011

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 5 April 2011. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

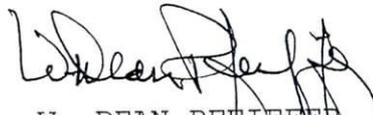

You entered active duty in the Navy on 30 April 1974. Your record is incomplete, but on 21 January 1975, you were convicted at a special court-martial of a 93 day period of unauthorized absence. On 14 March 1975, you received a general discharge due to unsuitability - inaptitude, and were assigned an RE-4 (not recommended for retention) reenlistment code.

Characterization of service is based in part on overall trait marks assigned on a periodic basis. Your overall trait average was 2.0. A 3.0 overall trait average was required for a fully honorable discharge.

In its review of your application, the Board carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your youth and marital problems. However, the Board concluded that your discharge should not be changed due to your misconduct and insufficiently high overall trait average. The Board believed that you were fortunate to receive a general discharge, since individuals who have committed misconduct such as yours normally receive an other than honorable characterization of service. In view of the above, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
