

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

BJG
Docket No: 8115-10
13 April 2011

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 12 April 2011. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You entered active duty in the Navy on 26 March 1982. You received two nonjudicial punishments and were convicted by a summary court-martial. Your offenses included incapacitation for the proper performance of duties, unauthorized absence ((UA) two periods totaling five days), and failure to obey a lawful order. On 20 January 1984, you were convicted at a special court-martial of UA (14 days), missing the movement of your ship, disrespect, breach of the peace, using provoking words, assault (two specifications), and drunk and disorderly conduct. Your sentence included a bad conduct discharge (BCD). On 24 February 1987, after appellate review, you received the BCD.

In its review of your application, the Board carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your youth, remorse, and alcohol abuse problems. However, the Board concluded that your BCD should not be changed due to your misconduct. You are advised that no discharge is upgraded due merely to the passage of time or post service good conduct. In view of the above, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

Regarding the alleged administrative errors on your Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty (DD Form 214, please send your request for changes to:

Navy Personnel Command
5720 Integrity Drive
Millington, Tennessee 38055-3120

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
