

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

BJG
Docket No: 9258-10
4 May 2011

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 3 May 2011. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You entered active duty in the Marine Corps on 30 June 1966. You received nonjudicial punishment on four occasions and were convicted by a special court-martial (SPCM). Your offenses included three specifications of unauthorized absence (UA) totaling 128 days, breaking restriction, making a false official statement, and failure to be at your appointed place of duty. On 7 June 1968, you were convicted by a SPCM of a UA totaling 31 days. Your sentence included a bad conduct discharge (BCD). On 2 January 1969, after appellate review, you received the BCD.

In its review of your application, the Board carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your youth, remorse, the passage of time, post service good conduct, and current desire for veterans' benefits. However, the Board concluded that your BCD should not be changed due to your numerous acts of misconduct. You are advised that no discharge is upgraded due solely to the passage of time or post service good conduct. You are further advised that the Presidential Pardon program for Vietnam era veterans does not provide entitlement to veterans' benefits. In view of the above, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
