

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

REC
Docket No: 10697-10
10 August 2011

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 10 August 2011. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You enlisted in the Navy on 26 September 1989, at age 18. On 24 May 1990, you received nonjudicial punishment (NJP) for being drunk and disorderly. On 8 February 1994, you received counseling concerning your failure to meet Navy standards during the physical readiness test (PRT). On 27 December 1994, you received counseling concerning your failure of the PRT. On 8 June 1995, you were recommended for administrative separation by reason of weight control failure on three PRT cycles. On 8 June 1995, your commanding officer forwarded his recommendation that you be discharged with a general discharge by reason of weight control failure. You were then processed for separation by reason of weight control failure. After you were advised of your rights, you elected to receive copies of documents to be forwarded to the separation authority, but waived all your other procedural rights. Subsequently, on 28 June 1995, you were discharged with a general discharge by reason of weight control failure. At that time, you were assigned a reentry code of RE-3T.

In its review of your application, the Board considered all mitigating factors, such as your youth. However, the Board found these factors were insufficient to warrant changing your characterization of service due to your misconduct and failure to meet the Navy's weight standards. The Board thus concluded that there is no error or injustice in your characterization of service. You are advised that an RE-3T reentry code is waivable if you desire to reenlist. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
