[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application dated 1 February 2011 for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552, requesting removal of the service record page 11 ("Administrative Remarks (1070)") entry dated 23 April 2010 reflecting that you were not authorized to wear the Marine Corps Recruiting Service Ribbon; and seeking reconsideration of your previous application for authority to wear that ribbon. Your previous case, docket number 11702-10, was denied on 9 December 2010.

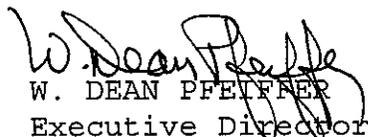

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your case on 18 August 2011. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your current application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, the Board's file on your prior case, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies. In addition, the Board considered the advisory opinions from Headquarters Marine Corps, dated 24 March 2011 and 6 July 2011 with enclosure, and the Marine Corps Recruiting Command dated 31 March 2011, copies of which are attached, and your letter dated 4 August 2011.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. In this connection, the Board substantially concurred with the comments contained in the advisory opinions. The Board further particularly noted that the Marine Corps Total Force System data shows you were transferred on 23 April 2010, not on 5 March 2010, the date shown on the orders you provided. In view of the above, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
