BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
701 S. COURTHOUSE ROAD, SUITE 1001
ARLINGTON, VA 22204-2490

REC
Docket No: 03525-11
7 February 2012

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10, United States Code, Section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 1 February 2012. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You enlisted in the Marine Corps on 31 December 1970, at age 17. On 7 January 1971, you commenced a period of unauthorized absence lasting 12 days. On 24 January 1971, you commenced a second period of being UA for 94 days. Your chain of command decided not to impose punishment. On 28 April 1971, you were apprehended by civilian authorities for grand larceny. On 19 April 1972, you were sentenced to three years probation. On 20 April 1972, you returned from a period of UA which lasted 334 days. On 24 April 1972, administrative separation action was initiated by reason of misconduct. You waived your rights to consult counsel, submit a statement or have your case heard by an administrative discharge board (ADB). Your commanding officer recommended that you receive an under other than honorable (OTH) conditions discharge by reason of misconduct. Subsequently, your case was forwarded, and the discharge
