

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
701 S. COURTHOUSE ROAD, SUITE 1001
ARLINGTON, VA 22204-2490

REC
Docket No: 00256-12
15 October 2012

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 3 October 2012. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You enlisted in the Navy on 13 April 1982, at age 19. On 26 August 1982, you received nonjudicial punishment (NJP) for failure to go to your appointed place of duty, disorderly conduct, and two incidents of being disrespectful toward a petty officer. On 9 November 1982, you received NJP for two incidents of failure to obey a lawful order, failure to go to your appointed place of duty, and being disrespectful in language. On 3 April 1984, you received NJP for assault, and being intoxicated in uniform. On 12 July 1984, you received NJP for being in an unauthorized absence (UA) status for 36 days. On 30 November 1984, you received NJP for two incidents of UA totaling 10 days, and four incidents of failure to go to your appointed place of duty. On 7 December 1984, you received NJP for wrongful use of cocaine. On 7 December 1984, you were advised that your commanding officer was recommending you for administrative separation with an other than honorable (OTH) discharge due to misconduct. You waived all of your procedural rights, including your right to an administrative discharge board (ADB). On 16 December 1984, your commanding officer forwarded his recommendation that you be discharged with an OTH characterization of service by reason of misconduct. On 22 December 1984, the discharge authority directed an OTH discharge by reason of misconduct (frequent involvement of a discreditable nature with civil or military authorities). On 24 December 1984, you were so discharged. At that time you were assigned an RE-4 reenlistment code.

The Board, in its review of your application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your youth, conduct, and overall record of service. Nevertheless, the Board found that these factors were not sufficient to warrant changing the characterization of your discharge, given your record of six NJP's for misconduct. In this regard, an RE-4 reenlistment code is required when an individual is discharged for misconduct and is not recommended for retention. The Board also noted that you waived the right to an ADB, your best opportunity for retention or a better characterization of service. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
