

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
701 S. COURTHOUSE ROAD, SUITE 1001
ARLINGTON, VA 22204-2490

REC
Docket No: 01110-12
29 November 2012

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10, United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 28 November 2012. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You reenlisted in the Navy Reserve on 11 June 2005, after serving a year of honorable service. On 21 June 2006, you were notified that administrative discharge procedures were initiated and that you would receive a general discharge due to failure to comply with required drill attendance (unsatisfactory participation). Apparently, you waived your rights. On 25 August 2006, your commanding officer forwarded his recommendation that you be discharged with a general under honorable conditions characterization of service by reason of unsatisfactory participation. The discharge authority directed a general discharge by reason of misconduct (unsatisfactory participation). On 11 January 2007, you received the general discharge due to failure to participate. At that time you were assigned an RE-4 reentry code.

The Board, in its review of your entire record and application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your record of prior honorable service. However, the Board found that these factors were not sufficient to warrant changing the RE-4 reentry code, given your record of failure to participate in required drills. The Board also noted that you were fortunate to receive a general discharge since a separation under other than honorable conditions is often directed when an individual is found to have failed to fulfill drill requirements. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

BRIAN J. GEORGE
Head, Discharge Section
