

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
701 S. COURTHOUSE ROAD, SUITE 1001
ARLINGTON, VA 22204-2490

BJG
Docket No: 01625-12/
10541-11
9 February 2012

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your electronic mail (e-mail) with enclosures dated 6 February 2012, in which you ask the Board to reconsider its decision to deny your request for removal of your failure of selection by the Fiscal Year 2012 Marine Corps Reserve Lieutenant Colonel Selection Board. You have added a new request for a special selection board (SSB).

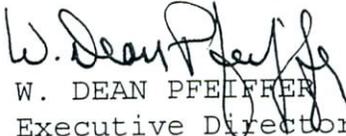

As was pointed out to you in our letter of 23 January 2012, when a request for corrective action is denied by the Board, sitting in executive session, new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered must be submitted in order to have the Board reconsider its decision. After a careful review of your e-mail and enclosures, I am unable to find any new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board.

Regarding your assertion that errors in your retirement point record had not been completely corrected when you were considered for promotion, you could have communicated with the promotion board to ensure the board had accurate information about the extent of your reserve participation.

You may direct your SSB request to the Headquarters Marine Corps Promotion Branch, Officer Section (Code MMPR-1).

In view of the above, I regret to inform you that further review of your case is not warranted.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
