

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
701 S. COURTHOUSE ROAD, SUITE 1001
ARLINGTON, VA 22204-2490

SJN
Docket No: 04945-12
27 March 2013

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10, United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 26 March 2013. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

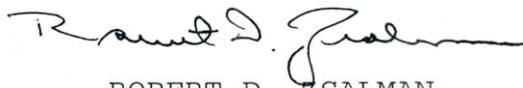

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You enlisted in the Navy and began a period of active duty on 17 January 2006. The Board found that you were found to be malingering and diagnosed as having an antisocial personality disorder after suffering from depression and having suicidal thoughts. The report stated, in part, that you presented a moderate safety risk due to your continued threats, refusal to contract for safety, and had a history of manipulation. Further, your suicidal and homicidal threats were not a product of a psychiatric illness, but were being reported and might have been carried out in order to be separated from the Navy. You were found to be a continued risk to harm yourself and others. Subsequently, after being afforded all of your procedural rights, you received an honorable discharge on 5 September 2007. At that time, you were assigned a RE-4 reentry code.

The Board noted that applicable regulations require the assignment of an RE-4 reentry code to individuals who are separated due to a diagnosed personality disorder and suicidal ideation. The Board thus concluded that there is no error or injustice in your reentry code. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,
