

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
701 S. COURTHOUSE ROAD, SUITE 1001
ARLINGTON, VA 22204-2490

TAL
Docket No: 7468-12
10 May 2013

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 8 May 2013. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

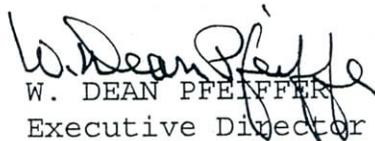

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You enlisted in the Marine Corps and began a period of active duty on 15 June 1965, at age 17. You received nonjudicial punishment (NJP) on seven occasions for six instances of unauthorized absence (UA) from your unit for a period totaling 18 days, breaking restriction and two instances of failure to go to your appointed place of duty. You were notified of pending administrative discharge processing with a general discharge due to unsuitability. You were afforded all of your procedural rights including the opportunity to submit a statement on your behalf. The separation authority approved and directed that you be discharged with a general characterization of service. On 23 December 1966 you were so discharged.

The Board, in its review of your application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your youth and overall record of service. Nevertheless, the Board found that these factors were not sufficient to warrant a change in your characterization of service given the seriousness and repetitiveness of your misconduct that resulted in seven NJPs. The Board noted that you were fortunate to receive a general characterization of service, since Marines who have committed misconduct such as yours normally receive other than honorable discharges. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
