

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
701 S. COURTHOUSE ROAD, SUITE 1001
ARLINGTON, VA 22204-2490

SJN
Docket No: 1879-13
29 January 2014

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 28 January 2014. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

On 30 November 1982, you reenlisted in the Marine Corps after serving over three years of honorable service. The Board found that on 10 May 1983, you received nonjudicial punishment (NJP) for unauthorized absence. On 8 October 1983, your name was mentioned in a Naval Investigative Service (NIS) investigation involving illegal possession with intent to sell, distribute, sale, and transfer of marijuana while stationed in Okinawa, Japan. Subsequently, on 9 March 1984, administrative discharge action was initiated by reason of misconduct due to drug abuse. You elected to consult with legal counsel and subsequently requested an administrative discharge board (ADB).

On 21 March 1984, the commanding officer (CO) forwarded your case to the commanding general recommending separation. On 17 April 1984, an ADB found that you had committed misconduct due to drug abuse, and recommended discharge under other than honorable (OTH) conditions. On 7 May 1984, the separation authority directed an OTH discharge by reason of misconduct due to drug abuse. On 27 September 1984 you were so discharged.

The Board, in its review of your application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your youth, prior honorable service and desire to upgrade your discharge. Nevertheless, the Board concluded these factors were not sufficient to warrant recharacterization of your discharge given your NJP, and wrongful drug involvement. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

The Board believes that you may be eligible for veterans' benefits that accrued during your first period of service. Whether or not you are eligible for benefits based on either period of service is a matter under the cognizance of the Department of Veterans Affairs (DVA). If you have been denied benefits, you should appeal that denial under procedures established by the DVA.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

ROBERT D. ZSALMAN
Acting Executive Director
