Docket No: 2333-13

30 April 2014

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 11 December 2013. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

The Board found that you enlisted in the Navy on 5 June 2012. On 3 August 2012 you were diagnosed with an adjustment disorder with a mixed disturbance of emotions and conduct with borderline traits. You were separated from the Navy with an uncharacterized entry level separation on 16 August 2012, by reason of a condition not a disability. You were assigned a reentry code of RE-8, as permitted by governing directives.

An RE-8 reentry code is the most favorable code authorized by regulatory guidance for individuals discharged due to condition not a disability. The Board thus concluded that there is no error or injustice in your reentry code. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the member of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,
