

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
701 S. COURTHOUSE ROAD, SUITE 1001
ARLINGTON, VA 22204-2490

SJN
Docket No: 02677-13
2 April 2014

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 1 April 2014. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

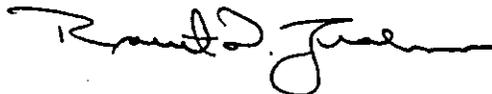

You enlisted in the Marine Corps and began a period of active duty on 22 January 1969. The Board found that on 24 July 1969, you were convicted by summary court-martial (SCM) of 70 days of unauthorized absence (UA). You were sentenced to confinement and a forfeiture of pay. However, all punishment was suspended for six months at which time unless sooner vacated the sentence would have been remitted without further action. You remained on active duty until 8 May 1970, when you received a general characterization of service from active duty due to reduction in authorized strength. You received a general discharge on 11 April 1975 upon completion of your military obligation.

Characterization of service is based in part on conduct marks assigned on a periodic basis. Your conduct average was 3.2. At the time of your service, a conduct average of 4.0 was required for a fully honorable characterization of service.

The Board, in its review of your application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your youth, record of service, and desire to upgrade your discharge. Nevertheless, the Board concluded this factor were not sufficient to warrant recharacterization of your discharge given your SCM conviction of a lengthy period of UA and failure to attain the required average in conduct. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,
