

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
701 S. COURTHOUSE ROAD, SUITE 1001
ARLINGTON, VA 22204-2490

BJG
Docket No: 4337-13
15 September 2014

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

You requested eight days of non-pay active duty credit.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application 10 September 2014. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies.

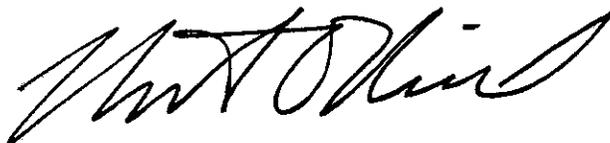

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You enlisted in the Navy and began a period of active duty on 4 February 1991. On 25 January 1993, you were released from active duty with an honorable characterization of service due to completion of your service obligation and transferred to the Navy Reserve. You had one year, 11 months, and 22 days of active duty service.

In its review of your application, the Board carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your allegation that the Department of Veterans Affairs (DVA) has denied you benefits based on you serving less than two years. However, the Board concluded that your active duty term of service should not be changed since you did not actually serve two years. The Board particularly noted that you did not provide evidence from the DVA that it has denied you benefits. In view of the above, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,
