

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
701 S. COURTHOUSE ROAD, SUITE 1001
ARLINGTON, VA 22204-2490

TAL
Docket No: 4572-13
22 April 2014

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 16 April 2014. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

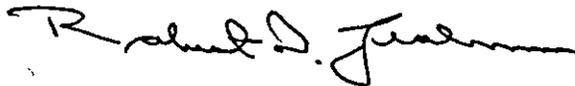

You enlisted in the Marine Corps and began a period of active duty on 1 May 1978 at age 18. You received nonjudicial punishment on three occasions for two instances of wrongful possession of marijuana and failure to obey a lawful regulation. On 26 March 1980, you were convicted by summary court-martial (SCM) of failure to go to your appointed place of duty. On 31 August 1980, you were convicted by special court-martial (SPCM) of assault, insubordinate conduct toward a noncommissioned officer and using disrespectful language toward a noncommissioned officer. The sentence imposed was restriction, reduction in paygrade and a forfeiture of pay. On 8 October 1980, you were convicted by SPCM of two instances of using disrespectful language toward a female noncommissioned officer, assault, and threatening a noncommissioned officer. The sentence imposed was confinement at hard labor, a forfeiture of pay and a bad conduct discharge (BCD). On 15 January 1982, you received the BCD after appellate review was complete.

The Board, in its review of your application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your youth and overall record of service. Nevertheless, the Board found that these factors were not sufficient to warrant recharacterization of your discharge given the seriousness of your misconduct that resulted in three NJPs, an SCM and two SPCMs. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

ROBERT D. ZSALMAN
Acting Executive Director
