(3) Subject's naval record

1. Pursuant to the provisions of reference (a) Subject, hereinafter referred to as Petitioner, filed enclosure (1) with this Board requesting, in effect, that the applicable naval record be corrected to established entitlement to payment of 5 days lump sum leave (LSL).

2. The Board, consisting of Mr. Pfeiffer, Mr. Zsalman, and Mr. George, reviewed Petitioner's allegations of error and injustice on 2 December 2013 and, pursuant to its regulations, determined that the corrective action indicated below should be taken on the available evidence of record. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of the enclosures, naval records, and applicable statutes, regulations and policies.

3. The Board, having reviewed all the facts of record pertaining to Petitioner's allegations of error and injustice, finds as follows:

a. Before applying to this Board, Petitioner exhausted all administrative remedies available under existing law and regulations within the Department of the Navy.

b. In correspondence attached as enclosure (2), the office having cognizance over the subject matter addressed in Petitioner's application has commented to the effect that the request has merit and warrants favorable action.

CONCLUSION

Upon review and consideration of all the evidence of record, and especially in light of the contents of enclosure (2), the Board finds the existence of an injustice warranting the following partial corrective action.

RECOMMENDATION:

That Petitioner's naval record be corrected, where appropriate, to show that:

a. In conjunction with his reenlistment of 20 March 2013, Petitioner requested and was approved to sell back 5 days leave. Note: Petitioner's leave balance will be reduced by 5 days, and he will be entitled to payment for 5 days of leave.

b. That part of the Petitioner's request for corrective action that exceeds the foregoing is denied. Records show that the Petitioner sold 25 days leave on 3 April 2005, and 30 days leave on 11 February 2010 for a total of 55 days. IAW DOD 7000.14R FMR Volume 7A chapter 35, career leave payment is limited to 60 days, authorizing the petitioner to sell 5 days.

c. A copy of this Report of Proceedings will be filed in Petitioner's naval record.

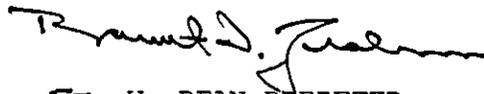

4. It is certified that quorum was present at the Board's review and deliberations, and that the foregoing is a true and complete record of the Board's proceedings in the above entitled matter.
