

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
701 S. COURTHOUSE ROAD, SUITE 1001
ARLINGTON, VA 22204-2490

TJR
Docket No: 6604-13
24 July 2014

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of Title 10, United States Code, Section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 22 July 2014. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

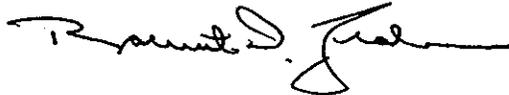

You enlisted in the Navy and began a period of active duty on 11 April 1984. You served for about four months without disciplinary incident, but during the period from 6 September 1984 to 4 April 1985, you received nonjudicial punishment (NJP) on two occasions and were convicted by special court-martial (SPCM). Your offenses were five periods of unauthorized absence (UA) totalling 67 days and absence from your appointed place of duty.

Subsequently, you were processed for an administrative separation by reason of misconduct due to a pattern of misconduct. After waiving your procedural rights, on 19 April 1985, your commanding officer recommended discharge under other than honorable conditions by reason of misconduct due to a pattern of misconduct. On 24 April 1985, the discharge authority approved this recommendation and directed separation under other than honorable conditions by reason of misconduct, and on 3 May 1985, you were so discharged.

The Board, in its review of your entire record and application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your desire to upgrade your discharge and assertion of suffering from drug abuse and not being afforded rehabilitation. Nevertheless, the Board concluded these factors were not sufficient to warrant recharacterization of your discharge because of the seriousness of your misconduct which resulted in two NJPs and an SPCM. Further, you were given an opportunity to defend your actions, but waived your procedural rights. Finally, there is no evidence in the record, and you submitted none, to support your assertion. Accordingly, your application has been denied.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

ROBERT D. ZSALMAN
Acting Executive Director
