[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 8 January 2014. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence of probable material error or injustice.

The Board found that you enlisted in the Marine Corps on 12 June 1984. On 24 July 1984 your commanding officer recommended your separation based on an apathetic attitude, substandard performance, failure to adapt, and lack of effort. On 1 August 1984 you received an entry level separation by reason of performance and conduct.

In its review of your application the Board carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors such as your youth and immaturity. The Board concluded that those factors were insufficient to warrant characterizing your discharge to honorable, as an entry level separation is generally required when separation processing is initiated within the first 180 days of service. Accordingly, your application has been denied.

The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Boar reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,
