

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
701 S. COURTHOUSE ROAD, SUITE 1001
ARLINGTON, VA 22204-2490

BC
Docket No: 00289-14
13 March 2014

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10, United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 12 March 2014. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

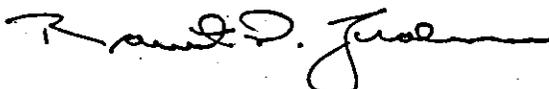

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You enlisted in the Marine Corps and began a period of active duty on 9 August 2006. On 15 February 2008, you received counseling concerning a violation of a lawful order by not applying the required checklist and procedures which resulted in the accidental firing of the cartridge actuating devices on two stations and jettison of two full external fuel tanks from an aircraft. On 27 August 2010, you were informed and acknowledged that you were not eligible to reenlist and would be assigned a waivable RE-1C (eligible for reenlistment, but denied further service by the Commandant of the Marine Corps) reentry code upon your separation. You were separated on 8 September 2010, with an honorable characterization of service and assigned an RE-1C reentry code.

The Board found that the assignment of an RE-1C reentry code was warranted by the counseling entry of 15 February 2008. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,
