

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
701 S. COURTHOUSE ROAD, SUITE 1001
ARLINGTON, VA 22204-2490

BJG
Docket No: 397-14
26 February 2014

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 25 February 2014. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You enlisted in the Navy Reserve under the name of [REDACTED] using the Social Security Number (SSN) of [REDACTED] and entered active duty on 25 February 1976. You received nonjudicial punishment for assault. You were also diagnosed with a schizoid personality disorder. You were then recommended for administrative separation due to unsuitability (personality disorder) with a general characterization of service. You were so discharged on 1 November 1976, and assigned an RE-4 (not recommended for retention) reenlistment code.

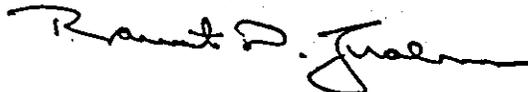

On 15 December 1976, you enlisted in the Navy under the name of [REDACTED] using the SSN of [REDACTED]. You were counseled regarding your previous fraudulent enlistment and warned that further misconduct could result in administrative separation.

You completed your active obligated service and were honorably discharged.

In its review of your application, the Board carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your youth and current desire to change your SSN on your second Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty (DD Form 214). However, the Board concluded that the SSN is correct in accordance with the information you provided to the Navy at the time of your enlistment. In view of the above, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

ROBERT D. ZSALMAN
Acting Executive Director
