

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
701 S. COURTHOUSE ROAD, SUITE 1001
ARLINGTON, VA 22204-2490

BC
Docket No: 00668-14
1 May 2014

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 30 April 2014. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You enlisted in the Marine Corps on 20 June 2011. On 11 October 2011, a mental health evaluation was conducted and you were diagnosed with an adjustment disorder with mixed anxiety and depressed mood. On 27 October 2011, you were informed and acknowledged that administrative separation procedures were initiated and you waived your rights. On 9 December 2011, you received an uncharacterized entry level separation by reason of condition not a disability due to the adjustment disorder and were assigned an RE-4 reentry code, as authorized by governing directives.

The Board, in its review of your application, considered all potentially mitigating factors present in your case, including your concern for your mother's illness. Nevertheless, the Board found those factors insufficient to warrant changing the reentry code given your diagnosed adjustment disorder and non-recommendation for retention. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,
