

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
701 S. COURTHOUSE ROAD, SUITE 1001
ARLINGTON, VA 22204-2490

BC
Docket No: 00713-14
9 June 2014

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 4 June 2014. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

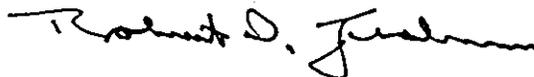

You enlisted in the Marine Corps on 28 June 2000. A mental health evaluation was conducted and you were diagnosed with a personality disorder. On 20 June 2001, after being informed of your rights concerning the administrative separation action was initiated in your case, you waived your procedural rights. Your commanding officer recommended that you be discharged by reason of personality disorder. The recommendation was approved, and on 3 July 2001, you received an honorable discharge and were assigned an RE-4 (non-recommendation for retention) reentry code.

The Board, in its review of your application, considered all potentially mitigating factors present in your case. Nevertheless, the Board found those factors insufficient to warrant changing the narrative reason for separation and reentry code given your demonstrated unsuitability for naval service based on your diagnosis of a personality disorder and non-recommendation for retention. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

ROBERT D. ZSALMAN
Acting Executive Director
