Docket No: NR832-14
26 June 2014

[REDACTED]

Dear Senior Chief [REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

You requested that your Navy Enlisted Classification (NEC) Codes for Nuclear Propulsion Plant Operator, NEC 3365, 3302 and 9502 be reinstated and that your reenlistment bonus be paid or that the unearned portions of this bonus not be recouped.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 26 June 2014. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof and applicable statutes, regulations and policies. In addition, the Board considered the advisory opinion furnished by the Office of the Chief of Naval Operations dated 6 June 2014, a copy of which is attached.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. In this connection, the Board substantially concurred with the advisory opinion, noting that the service record page 13 entry dated 30 September 2011 reflects that you "demonstrated lack of reliability." Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,
