

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
701 S. COURTHOUSE ROAD, SUITE 1001
ARLINGTON, VA 22204-2490

BC
Docket No: 00916-14
25 July 2014

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10, United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 23 July 2013. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

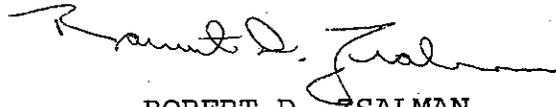

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You enlisted in the Navy and began a period of active duty on 25 September 2001. On 4 December 2007, you were informed by your chain of command that you could not comply with the Navy Family Care requirements. On 25 February 2008, you submitted a request for an early release. On 26 February 2008, you were informed of your rights in connection with administrative separation processing which had been initiated in your case. On 7 March 2008, your commanding officer forwarded his recommendation that you be separated with an honorable discharge by reason of parenthood or custody of minor children. On 25 March 2008, the discharge authority directed an honorable characterization of service by reason of parenthood or custody of minor children. You were so discharged on 9 April 2008 and assigned an RE-3B (parenthood/pregnancy/childbirth) reentry code.

You have not demonstrated that your reentry code was assigned in error, so the Board was unable to recommend favorable action on your request. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

ROBERT D. ZSALMAN
Acting Executive Director
