This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of 10 USC 1552.

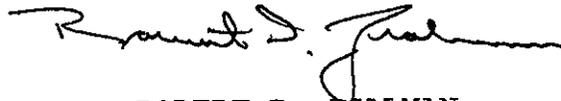

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 30 June 2014. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies. In addition, the Board considered the advisory opinion furnished by CNRC Memo 1133 Ser N3 of 14 May 14, a copy of which is attached.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. In making this determination, the Board concurred with the comments contained in the advisory opinion. Your application, essentially, claims "I notified my recruiter of my degree prior to leaving for basic training, but he informed me to submit the required paperwork once I completed [SIC] basic training". However, you provided no evidence to support this statement. Further review of your record shows that the recruiter determined that the transcripts you did submit were not from a institution listed on the National Accreditation Board or the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers as is required for advancement to be granted if eligible. The Board concurred with the advisory opinion that per COMNAVCRUITCOMINST 1130.8J "Retroactive advancements are not authorized". The Board also determined that you did not meet the eligibility requirements based upon your transcripts. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

ROBERT D. ZSALMAN
Acting Executive Director
