

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
701 S. COURTHOUSE ROAD, SUITE 1001
ARLINGTON, VA 22204-2490

EGA
Docket No: 12661-14
31 March 2015

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of Title 10, United States Code, Section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 3 March 2015. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

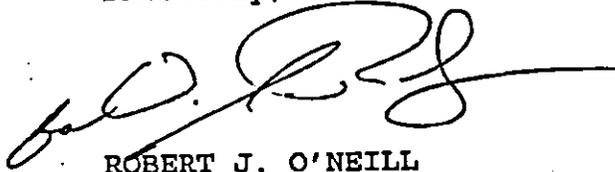

You reenlisted in the Navy on 11 July 2002 and were subsequently commissioned as an officer on 23 July 2004. You served without disciplinary incident until 26 February 2014, when you were detached for cause (DFC) due to substandard performance of duty. Nonetheless, you have completed your service obligations without additional disciplinary incidents, and as such your performance has been recognized by your chain of command.

The Board, in its review of your entire record and application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your satisfactory service, desire to remove the DFC, and allegations of being wrongfully detached for cause. Nevertheless, the Board concluded these factors were not sufficient to warrant relief in your case because no error or injustice was identified during the administration of your DFC. Accordingly, your application has been denied.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board within one year from the date of the Board's decision. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read 'R. J. O'Neill', with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.

ROBERT J. O'NEILL
Executive Director