

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
701 S. COURTHOUSE ROAD, SUITE 1001
ARLINGTON, VA 22204-2490

EGA
Docket No: 2416-14
2 April 2015

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of Title 10, United States Code, Section 1552.

Although your application was not filed in a timely manner, the Board found it in the interest of justice to waive the statute of limitations and consider your application on its merits. A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 20 March 2015. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You enlisted in the Navy and began a period of active duty on 4 May 1980. You served for a month without disciplinary incident, but during the period from 5 June 1980 to 27 July 1981, you received nonjudicial punishment (NJP) on seven occasions. Your offenses were unauthorized absence, misbehavior of a sentinel, disobeying orders, possession of alcohol while on restriction, damaging military property, malingering, dereliction of duty, and possessing another service member's ID card. As a result, you were recommended for an administrative separation by reason of misconduct due to frequent involvement of a discreditable nature with military authorities.

On 21 September 1981, you were discharged with an other than honorable characterization of service.

The Board, in its review of your entire record and application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your desire to upgrade your character of service and your allegation of being denied treatment. Nevertheless, the Board concluded these factors were not sufficient to warrant relief in your case, given your frequent misconduct and involvement with military authorities. Further, you were given an opportunity to complete an alcohol abuse rehabilitation program, but you were terminated from the program for your inability to commit to the treatment program. Finally, there is no evidence in the record, and you provided none, to support your allegations. Accordingly, your application has been denied.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board within one year from the date of the Board's decision. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,
