

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
701 S. COURTHOUSE ROAD, SUITE 1001
ARLINGTON, VA 22204-2490

TAL
Docket No: 3945-14
6 May 2015

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552. The application was filed in a timely manner.

Although your application was not filed in a timely manner, the Board found it in the interest of justice to waive the statute of limitations and consider your application on its merits. A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 8 April 2015. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

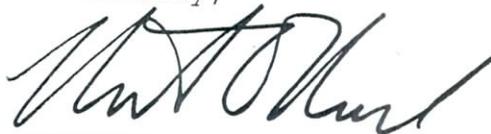

You enlisted in the Marine Corps and began a period of active duty on 24 July 2006. On 21 July 2008, you received nonjudicial punishment (NJP) for failure to obey a lawful regulation. The punishment imposed was a forfeiture of pay, restriction and extra duties. You were advised of your right to appeal the punishment. You did not appeal the NJP. On 23 July 2010, you were honorably discharged from the Marine Corps.

The Board, in its review of your entire record and application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your desire to remove the NJP. Nevertheless, the Board concluded these factors were not sufficient to warrant relief in your case. Additionally, the Board noted that you did not appeal the NJP and concluded that its removal from your record was unwarranted. It also considered the unsigned statement regarding your allegations of hazing. In this regard, the Board concluded that this evidence was not enough to outweigh the significant misconduct you committed. Accordingly, your application has been denied.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence within one year from the date of the Board's decision. New evidence is evidence not previously considered by the Board prior to making its decision in your case. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,
