

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
701 S. COURTHOUSE ROAD, SUITE 1001
ARLINGTON, VA 22204-2490

TAL
Docket No: 4860-14
14 May 2015

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

Although your application was not filed in a timely manner, the Board found it in the interest of justice to waive the statute of limitations and consider your application on its merits. A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 6 May 2015. The names and votes of the member of the panel will be furnished upon request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You enlisted in the Navy and began a period of active duty on 4 December 1989. You served for three months without disciplinary incident, but during the period from 26 April 1990 to 22 March 1991, you received nonjudicial punishment (NJP) on five occasions. Your offenses were failure to obey a lawful order, absence from your appointed place of duty, and failure to go to your appointed place of duty. On 29 November 1991, you were convicted by general court-martial of conspiring to commit larceny and larceny. The sentence imposed was confinement, a forfeiture of pay, payment of a fine, reduction in paygrade and a bad conduct discharge (BCD). On 2 March 1993, you received the BCD after appellate review was complete.

The Board, in its review of your entire record and application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your desire to upgrade your discharge and your health problems. Nevertheless, the Board concluded these factors were not sufficient to warrant relief in your case because of the seriousness of your repeated misconduct. Accordingly, your application has been denied.

In regard to your request for a copy of your naval record, you may obtain a copy of your naval record by submitting the enclosed Request Pertaining to Military Records, SF 180, to National Personnel Records Center (Military Personnel Records), 9700 Page Boulevard, St Louis, MO 63132.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence within one year from the date of the Board's decision. New evidence is evidence not previously considered by the Board prior to making its decision in your case. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

ROBERT J. O'NEILL
Executive Director
