

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
701 S. COURTHOUSE RD SUITE 1001
ARLINGTON VA 22204-2490

BAN
Docket No: NR05667-14
12 November 2014

[REDACTED]

This is in reply to your request for reconsideration on 4 September 2014. A review of our files reveals that in June 2012, you petitioned this Board seeking to change your "partial year" with 243 points, and that it be made a "satisfactory year".

On 14 January 2013, your case was presented to the Board and it was disapproved. On 4 September 2014, you have requested a reconsideration of your case.

As explained in the Board's previous denial letter, a case may only be reconsidered upon submission of new and material evidence. New evidence is defined as evidence not previously considered by the Board and not reasonably available to you at the time of your previous application. Evidence is considered to be material if it is likely to have a substantial effect on the outcome of the Board's decision.

On 5 November 2014, your reconsideration request to be heard before the Board was approved. Therefore, a three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your reconsideration request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies. In addition, the Board considered the advisory opinion furnished by Headquarters Marine Corps (HQMC) memo 1800 MMSR-5 of 8 Aug 2014, a copy of which was provided to you on 29 August 2014, and is being provided to you now, see enclosure.

However, after careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence you submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. In making this determination, the Board still concurred with the comments contained in the original advisory opinion. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new evidence within one year from the date of the Board's decision. New evidence is evidence not previously considered by the Board prior to making its decision in this case. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records.

Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

ROBERT J. O'NEILL
Executive Director
